AJOB WELL DONE

It may be a little late to present a bouquet to the chairman of the Palm Beach County Democratic Executive Committee for his splendid work in the fall election—but, his presence in the Lake Region last week reminded us that we hadn't properly commended Waring T. Miller for the excellent work done in behalf of the democratic party. Chairman Miller is the sort of a young chap who isn't interested in bouquets but it gives us a great deal of pleasure—even at this late date—to publicly thank him for the unceasing effort expended during the time that he has been in the executive position.

While many were worrying over the fact that Palm Beach county and Florida might go Republican in November—Young Mr. Miller went quietly about his work and with a group of excellent assistants provided results that were gratifying to democratic officials after the election was over. This newspaper is of the opinion that the selection of Waring T. Miller as chairman of the democratic committee was a wise move. He is young, energetic, ambitious and a chap who has thousands of friends throughout the county. That it was a wise move has been recorded in the Political history of the county.

MORE OLDER PEOPLE

The other day somebody remarked that there seemed to be so many more older people than there were a quarter century ago. We had entertained the same thought, and the 1940 census confirms it as true. Since 1930 the group of people in the U. S. who are 65 has increased more than two and a quarter million, and this represents also a heavy percentage increase.

Two major reasons are assigned for this. First is that people these days know better how to take care of themselves and live longer. And second, large families are not so popular in these later years, and there are not so many children born as there used to be.

This is a situation which promises ever-increasing problems. If the trend continues for many more decades the younger people will have quite a time taking care of the older ones. In fact they do now, but it promises to be worse as time goes on.—Arcadia Arcadian.

USUAL WEATHER

Complaints have been heard from many sections of the state about the over-dose of inclement weather which Florida seems to be afflicted with this winter, and some persons go so far as to predict that the current tendency of weather reports to proclaim "cloudy and colder" will have a deleterious effect on next year's tourist crop.

We have a lot of this talk arises out of the fact that almost everyone expects Florida to produce perfect, sun-shiny days, 365 days out of the year, and when the record falls a little short, all are disappointed and begin to complain.

When we hear these complaints we usually turn to the front-page of any newspaper and read about wintry wails sweeping the country, telling the mercer, tumbling below zero, piling up snow drifts over the tops of cars, and freezing people to death in huddled latches, and then, we consider on how difficult it is to please some people.

We don't have the statistics before us now, but we would like to bet that temperatures and rainfall for this part of Florida this season are not far from the usual average and that this usual average is so much better than the rest of the country's comparison would be ridiculous.—Sanford Herald.

Mrs. Elliott Entertains

Mrs. E. Elliott, head of the migrant Christian service in the Pahokee area, on last Thursday, entertained a group of Missionary officers from Miami and Pahokee, at a luncheon at Cypress Lodge at Port Mayaca, at which time plans were made for migrant camp service. Mrs. Elliott took her Miami friends to visit some of the homes and the new migrant camps at Pahokee and Belle Glade.

BUILDS BOAT

Bill Johnson, who operates a boat yard and fishing camp at Clewiston, has just made a fine boat for patrol, but never one for fun. It is not an ordinary such a project on a 26 foot cabin cruiser. Diesel powered, and fitted up in the latest sportman type. The new craft will have a cruising area of 500 miles without refueling.

Mrs. Guice Heads Margery Lair Circle

The Margery Lair Circle, of the Pahokee Methodist church, met at the home of Mrs. Anderson, in Beacon Point road Monday afternoon. The program hour was largely taken up with a review by Mrs. John Dulaney on the study book "The Prophets". New officers chosen to head the Circle the coming year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. R. H. Guice, associate leader, Mrs. O. B. McClure; secretary, Mrs. D. B. Anderson; treasurer, James Henry; secretary, Susan Dulaney; Mrs. John Dulaney.

ARMY AIRPORT

Palm Beach County's air port, known as Morrison field, this week, passed into the control of the U. S. Army and is now being established as an Army Post, with Lt. John W. Monahan, as commander. The assistant officer, Lt. Col. W. C. Mahoney, of Ft. Monroe, Va., will be in charge of the Quartermaster supply department.

Father Of Local Men Dies; Age 82

J. G. Weeks of Canal Point, and Inman Weeks of Pahokee have received notice of the death of their father, Mr. A. Weeks, who died at the age of 82 years. The deceased had been a farmer most of his life and left a nice estate near Lulu. Mr. Weeks left a wife, three sons, J. O. and Infant, Mrs. Thomas Pinkston and Mrs. Robert Courson, of Lulu, and seven stepchildren.

There was no session of the legislature this year, so there was no legislative expense except in the form of $25,143.12, which was paid last year for the 1939 legislature. But, the 1939 legislature cost $47,186.12 in addition to the $25,143.12, which is a total of more than a half-million dollars. That is pretty high-priced legislation, too. But I had rather have legislation at those stiff rates than the decrees of a dictator.

Come next week, I am going to set forth the cost of maintaining state buildings, the highway pay, the state militia and a flock of other functions of state government. For instance, I am going to tell what it cost to keep up that state shanty at 912 North Adams Street, Tallahassee, more commonly known as the Governor's Mansion.

Tillis Thanks Friends For Help

Wiley Tillis, proprietor of the Home Town Bakery in Pahokee, this week publicly thanks the dozens of friends who assisted in bridging the bakery's financial crisis. He controlled two weeks ago. Mr. Tillis and his crew of workmen are deeply grateful for all assistance at the time of the fire. Workmen are busy this week, rebuilding the bakery building and Mr. Tillis hopes to be able to reopen the establishment within a few weeks.

BANQUET

The Junior Class of the Pahokee High school is now earning and raising funds for the annual Junior-Senior banquet to be held at the close of the school year. The girls are selling peanuts and candy, and the boys are sponsoring a skating party at the Maxwell House rink.

Two new bus schedules between Starke and Tallahassee, giving traveling public for the first time a direct service, without change, and only four hours' travel time, was announced last week by the Florida Motor Lines.

FULLER'S FULMINATIONS

by Fuller Warren

When I called it quits last week I threatened to tell in detail this week where your state money goes. In order to do this I am going to have to almost blind you, and certainly bore you, with figures. I hope you will try to follow me through this labyrinthine maze of figures. In the revival we had no other back to the money town, the saved almost said, "Where He Leads Me, I Will Follow." I hope you will try to get yourself into this attitude, as we fore forth into these financial figures.

The total expenditures for the executive department of the general government of the State of Florida, which embraces the governor's office, the comptroller's office, the treasurer's office, the attorney general's office, the secretary of state's office, the secretary of public affairs' office, the state banking department, the motor vehicle department, the beverage department, and the state racing commission, amounted to $2,130,537.80.

Of this sum, $2,228.21 was paid for salaries in the motor vehicle department; $88,429.09 for salaries in the auditing department; $46,638.92 for salaries in the treasury office; $59,928.31 for salaries in the attorney general's office; $35,389.02 for salaries in the secretary of state's office; $7,344.94 for salaries in the department of public instruction.

It can be seen from the above figures that less than one-fifth of the money spent on these various offices of the executive branch of State government went for salaries. All too frequently a ranting, arm-waving, hair-in-the-face demagogue, who is striving with might and main to make himself attuned to the public pulse, makes the loud, but unsupported, claim that nearly all the money is being wasted on high salaries for political employees.

The next time you hear one of the charming demagogues of politics making such preposterous statements you can recall the fact that less than one-fifth of the money spent on the executive department of our state government goes for salaries.

The judicial branch of our state government sent the taxpayers' back (as we used to say around the commissary at Blountstown) a grand total of $659,014.63 last year. $23,252.26 of this sum was for the salaries of the justices and the employees of the supreme court. $252,608.15 was for the salaries of circuit judges, state attorneys, and assistant state attorneys. $165,319.26 was spent for three and a half million in circuit court expenses.

So, don't think justice is entirely free. It comes pretty high that it is worth it. I had rather have the kind of justice we enjoy in Florida at any cost than the neck justice that other hands out, at no cost at all.

There was no session of the legislature this year, so there was no legislative expense except in the form of $25,143.12, which was paid last year for the 1939 legislature. But, the 1939 legislature cost $47,186.12 in addition to the $25,143.12, which is a total of more than a half-million dollars. That is pretty high-priced legislation, too. But I had rather have legislation at those stiff rates than the decrees of a dictator.

Come next week, I am going to set forth the cost of maintaining state buildings, the highway pay, the state militia and a flock of other functions of state government. For instance, I am going to tell what it cost to keep up that state shanty at 912 North Adams Street, Tallahassee, more commonly known as the Governor's Mansion.

Okeechobee County To Refund Debt

After four years of endeavor Okeechobee county is to be able to refund its bonded indebtedness, and county officials were in Chicago the past week signing the necessary legal papers. In order to finally bring about this refunding the County had to resort to the bankruptcy act. School bonds of the county have already been refunded in a satisfactory manner. The city of Okeechobee is fostering a like program.

NET GAMES

Pahokee High school basketball team gave the highly touted Key West team a thrashing at the local gymnasium, Friday night, by a score of 29 to 23. The "B" teams also put up a stiff game, in which Key West won by a 18 to 15 score. The Pahokee Ramblers and the Belle Glade team, of the County League, also played a practice game.

Garbage Ordinance Upheld By Court

A recent decision of the Florida Supreme Court upholds the Miami city garbage ordinance, in regard to the right of the city to charge for this special service. This controversy has been one of the causes of nodding up the proposed garbage ordinance in Pahokee, and as doubt has been removed as to the city's right to accept a paid service, the Council will probably enact the new law.

Annual Dinner Is—

Improved housing has been provided for the workers; wages have been doubled, the number of employees increased and the period of peak employment lengthened.

During those ten years studies have been started on a number of crops which some day may be important for the area. Years of study, analysis and research have borne excellent fruit in animal husbandry; proof is now available that beef cattle can be finished for market in South Florida, for such contribution to the future welfare of the area we, and that "we" takes in the entire organization, can take pardonable pride.

There are many other aspects of the progress of the past ten years with which all in the Lake region are familiar, and all these aspects have made the Glades a better place in which to live and work. One of these other aspects I cannot pass without some mention. I refer to the independent farmers who have been encouraged and assisted in the diversification of their crops by the addition of sugar-cane, a staple non-surplus necessity. To the hundreds of other farmers in the Glades who desire the stability of income which will come from sugar-cane culture, I promise unremitting effort in assisting them to regain their inherent and traditional right to supply the non-surplus needs of their fellow Americans.

Looking around the Lake region makes one proud of a job well done. In fact feeling the directors and Stockholders join. The pride we have is not any little personal pride; it is not the egotistical pride of personal accomplishment; it is pride of the right to count ourselves as members of the organization that has accomplished as much for the Everglades.

This organization has an unusual resiliency and that resiliency is the main-spring of its success. Work, hard work and more of it, was the answer to each and every trouble and setback and as a result success has crowned its efforts. Far too many organizations and so-called national leaders would cry about the lack of opportunity, in fact searched for and created opportunities, to blame others for their own short-comings—but not this organization.

Each and every time this organization was cracked down during the past ten years, whether by nature, or by man-made laws, or even mere threats of man-made laws, did this organization call a meeting of itself. I ask you, did it? Did this organization will and mean about the injustice of life? I ask you, did it? Did this organization blame everything and everybody for its troubles? I ask you, did it? Did this organization rant and rave about the quality or decadence of our civilization? I ask you, did it?

You have answered those questions, and answered them truthfully. While our so-called leaders cried about the trouble they claimed others brought upon them, you, quietly and calmly, accomplished your task. When those rated as the great of the country complained about hard times, you quietly accomplished miracles. You have much of which to be proud and are well justified in that pride. You are entitled to membership in the ranks of the real and worthwhile leaders of our nation.

I pay you no compliment, but merely your just dues, when I say these things. Most of you have been so close to the picture that I doubt if you fully appreciate your own accomplishments. What have you done? I will tell you.

Ten years ago the Everglades was sick unto death; paydays were something about which to reminisce; store shelving was something to fill with mental pictures of desirable goods; the future was non-existent. Nowhere in America was the outlook as hopeless, and it was sadly depressed throughout the nation. Your faith, your vision, your courage, your loyalty; and, last, but not least, your hard work, made possible an outstanding accomplishment, indeed a miracle, during years of depression and we are here tonight to honor you in that accomplishment.

Not as a reward for accomplishment, but rather as a visible sign of such accomplishment, I hold in my hand an emblem. That emblem is a reproduction of a chip of sugar-cane super-imposed upon a silhouette of the Sugar-house; it is equipped with a threaded shank and button so as to fasten it in a man's coat lapel. That emblem is mark of accomplishment.

know those fortunate enough to obtain it will always wear it with the pride that, comes from the knowledge of a job well done.

The Board of Directors has authorized the presentation of a bronze emblem to every employee of five years or more, a silver emblem for ten or more years' service, and a gold emblem to those who have been connected with the Corporation or its predecessors for fifteen or more years. Suitable additions will be made as the time arrives for each additional five years of service. Distribution of emblems to Key Men will be made at the annual dinners; all other employees will receive identically similar emblems for their periods of service at the time of the harvest festival and barbecue. I am glad to be able to tell you that the later distribution will include a number of gold emblems for fifteen years' service, a much larger number in silver for ten years or more years' service, and hundreds of bronze emblems for five or more years' service. As I already stated, emblems distributions to other than Key Men will take place at end-of-harvest barbecue.

Perhaps it might be well to state that the emblems are in addition to the stock bonus to Key Men and the participations to other employees.

A LETTER

The Everglades News
Canal Point, Fla.

After serving the First Baptist Church of Pahokee, for three years and eight months, I am going back to my old home state. I have felt for some time, that I should return to Tennessee, and after urging from my friends there, I decided to resign the pastorate of the above Church, and return home.

It has been a pleasure to serve the Church at Pahokee, and I have found many good people here, that I am happy to call my friends. Among them I have esteemed the friendship of the two local weekly papers, and their owners very highly.

Church work in the Everglades, is different to any other place I have served, owing to seasonal aspect of the workers here. At times the work has been very heavy, and hard, but I have enjoyed every day of it. There have been a few misunderstandings; but that is to be found everywhere. And I leave this section with only the best and kindest wishes for everybody.

For the Church I have served, for the community, and for the local weeklies, I wish every blessing.

God bless all in my sincere prayer.

"I get Double Range Anti-Knock!"

Every motorist knows that there are two important ranges of acceleration where highest anti-knock performance is needed. For example, you need knockless power at 10 to 45 miles per hour for acceleration in traffic and 45 to 90 miles per hour for passing other cars and climbing hills. Some gasolines may give high anti-knock in one range but not in the other. But the new Sinclair H-C combines high anti-knock performance in both ranges.

With the Double-Range anti-knock in H-C you also get other remarkable qualities in performance. You get quick starting—rapid pick-up—smooth power—and long mileage.

Try a complete tankful of the new Double-Range H-C in your car today. Your nearby Sinclair dealer sells it at regular price. You will find it adds to the pleasure of driving and helps reduce motoring expense as well! Ask for the new Sinclair H-C.

New SINCLAIR H-C

For performance, no gasoline at regular price is superior to the new Sinclair H-C.

THANKS

I take this opportunity to express publicly our deepest gratitude to all who assisted in bringing the fire under control at our bakery. Without the efficient help of our many friends our bakery would have been a total loss. We shall always remember these acts of kindness.
